

Dear Valued Tenant

Now that you've found a suitable property to rent, we want to make your 'securing a property' process even easier. In order to give yourself the best chance to secure this property, we ask that the following information be provided which will give us the ability to present your applications to the owner in its best list.

Firstly, We ask all tenants over the age of 18 wishing to reside at the property complete an application for tenancy.

Be in Contention: To make sure you don't miss out, submit your application forms to Harwood Property Agents within 48 hours of seeing the property. The owner will not wait for other application forms so a lot of the times, it is first come best dress. You can send them in via email (rentals@harwoodproperty.com.au), fax, post or just drop them in.

First Impressions: Applications for tenancy that are hard to read, not complete, have blank items, not attached and dirty will not be processed.

Attach all Documents: Please be sure to attach all necessary documents to the application for tenancy. These documents can be sorted in the following ways;
Proof of income - pay slips, tax returns, bank statements, letters from work.
Rental history – Rental ledgers, letters of reference, receipts for rent.
Identification – Drivers licence, passport, rates notices, bank cards, Medicare cards.

Be Flexible: To improve your chances of securing the property, make your move in date as close as possible to the availability date.

If there may be anything else you believe will be an incentive for the owner to consider, please make our property managers aware so that we may present this to the owner.

Our processing timeframes are around 48 hours however this can vary from application to application. If you have any further questions, please contact our team on 9531 0013.

Yours sincerely,

Property Management Department
